Raleigh, Friday, February 7, 1868.

THE Conservative State Convention, after an earnest and laborious session of two days, completed its labors at 2 P. M. yesterday, and adjourned. For an account of its proceedings, the names of delegates, list of committees, resolutions, and other matters pertaining to its action, we refer our readers to the report to be found in another column. During the session of the Convention, it was addressed by Gov. Graham, Gov. Bragg, Gov. Vance, the Hon. Weldon N. Edwards, and others. Gov. Bragg and Mr. Edwards made brief responses to enthusiastic calls from all parts of the hall. Govs. Graham and Vance spoke more lengthily, entering into the discussion of the questions in issue before the people, and exhorting courage, energy and zeal in the conduct of the impending campaign.

Without compromising our position or our principles as Democrats—adhering strictly to the views we have unreservedly expressed—we could not—in view of the common purpose, which animates the white men of North Carolina, by whatever political designation known—do otherwise than rejoice at the zeal and enthusiasm manifested by the Convention in the sacred cause of redeeming the State from the blighting effects of Radical rule.

Obviously the first great duty, devolving upon the people of North Carolina, is to make preparation for a vigorous campaign against the adoption of the constitution, which shall be framed by the body, by courtesy called the Constitutional Convention. That constitution cannot be acceptable to the white men of North Carolina. Sufficient is known of the instrument to evoke their condemnation—and the character of the body from which it emanates, is proof conclusive that it will contain provisions that no decent man can endorse or support. Whatever else it may provide, it certainly will confer suffrage on the negro, and that, were it otherwise perfect in its provisions, would damn it in the estimation of gentlemen.

The white men of North Carolina stand irrevocably committed to the doctrine of the superiority of the white race. Upon this great principle the contest for the control for the State government is to be waged. While we are ready, always and under all circumstances, to give the negro every right necessary to his happiness and protection—to assist him in any proper effort for the bettering of his condition, we protest against, and shall strenuously, oppose any plan or party which confers upon him the privilege of the ballot. The lines between the races are distinctly drawn. There can be no compromise or concession. Our motto and our rallying cry shall be: The political privileges of the government are the property of the white men of the nation, and can not be surrendered by them without dishonor.

To the defence of these principles let us dedicate our energies, our talents and our time. The crisis in our political affairs has been reached. Let us meet it like men, whose rights, liberties and honor are endangered—manfully, earnestly and boldly, and may God save the Commonwealth!

IF North Carolina is to recover from the damage done her interests and her prosperity by the war and its consequences, two things need to be done, and done thoroughly. Her people must defeat the constitution now in process of formation, and thus prevent the supremacy of the negro in the control of our municipal affairs; and they must adopt some method by which to induce immigration to her borders. Of the first duty, we have spoken elsewhere; the latter is a matter worthy of more careful attention than it has yet received.

Our system of labor, through the evil influence of loyal league teachings, and the demoralization consequent upon the political campaigns in which the negro has been an active and interested participant, has been completely disorganized. Conversations with intelligent farmers and personal observation have convinced us that reliance upon negro labor for agricultural purposes will be fatal to our prosperity, unless that labor can be better controlled than is possible in the present order of things. Added to this, the number of laborers in the Southern States has been greatly reduced by removal and deaths, as well as by the enlistment of negroes in the United States army. The decrease thus created must be counterbalanced, or our industrial interests must suffer a proportionate injury. Our only resource by which to supply the deficiency, is to invite white men to settle amongst us. We care not whence they come, provided they are honest, industrious and come with a determination to locate permanently on our soil, identify themselves with our interests, and labor for the prosperity of the Commonwealth. Hitherto citizens of the States of the North have refused to take advantage of the inducements offered by our climate, our soil and our resources. This has been partly owing to the slanderous misrepresentations which have been sown broad-cast over the Northern States by itinerant correspondents of Radical journals, which had political purposes to subserve. We are glad to see that these false impressions are yielding to the logic of facts, and that Northern men are realizing the truth, that the South offers unequalled inducements to men of energy and worth, and are coming amongst us to find homes. We are quite sure that we speak the sentiments of the white people of North Carolina when we declare that Northern gentlemen having such objects, will be cordially welcomed and assisted. Against their coming no North Carolinian will protest. Those we do not want, however, are men who come amongst us for sinister and selfish motives, who do not scruple to inflame the passions of brutal negroes and thereby endanger the peace of our society, that they may attain positions here to which they dared not aspire where better known. Political adventurers, having nothing in common with our people, will consult our wishes by remaining where they are.

Emigration, it has been well said, has been our bane. Let us inaugurate an era of prosperity by making immigration the antidote.

J. F. Hoke, for the Committee on Organization, reported the following

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

The report was adopted by acclamation amid much applause.

J. F. Hoke offered the following additional resolution, as an amendment to the foregoing plan:

"Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons in each county to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information." Adopted.

Geo. V. Strong, Esq., moved that the Convention proceed to elect a Chairman of the Executive Committee for the State at large, and nominated Hon. Wm. A. Graham. (Applause.)

The President acknowledged the compliment, but said he must decline that honor, though willing to do all in his power to promote the cause. His engagements were such as to preclude his accepting the position, and besides the Chairman of the Committee should reside at the centre.

Mr. Strong then withdrew his nomination and nominated Hon. Thos. Bragg, who was thereupon elected by acclamation,

[At the President's suggestion, the Convention here took a recess of ten minutes, that the delegates from the several Judicial Districts might agree upon nominations of members of the Executive Committee.]

The Convention was again called to order.

R. C. Badger, Esq., introduced the followng resolution:

Resolved, That the President of the Convention be requested to furnish the Executive Committee with his very able address on taking the chair of the Convention, that it may be published and widely disseminated throughout the State.

The question was put by Vice-President Edwards, and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

On motion of Hon. D. G. Fowle, R. C. Badger, Esq., was elected by the Convention Secretary to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee was then constituted as follows:

Hon. Thomas Bragg—Chairman.

1st District—Hon. W. N. H. Smith, Wm. A. Moore, Mills H. Eure.

2nd District—H. R. Bryan, Geo. V. Strong, T. S. Kenan.

3rd District—Hon. Geo. Howard, J. J. Davis, M. W. Ransom.

4th District—J. M. Leach, L. Brown, J. T. Morehead, Jr.

5th District—E. D. Hall, A. McLean, Hon. T. S. Ashe.

6th District—R. M. Armfield, W. M. Robbins, J. H. Wilson.

7th District—Plato Durham, A. C. Avery, M. L. McCorkle.

8th District—R. M. Stokes, Cassius Gudger, W. L. Love.

At Raleigh: Hon. A. S. Merrimon, Hon. D. G. Fowle, Gen. W. R. Cox, Seaton Gales, J. P. H. Russ, Moses A. Bledsoe and R. C. Badger.

Hon. Thomas Bragg, for the Committee on Resolutions, submitted the following report:

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

The reading of these resolutions was frequently interrupted by enthusiastic outbursts of applause, and were then adopted with great unanimity.

In response to vociferous calls from all parts of the Hall, Gov. Z. B. Vance came forward to address the Convention, and was greeted with prolonged, enthusiastic applause. He said he would be more or less than man if he were insensible to the flattering manner in which the Convention had received him. He did not view this reception in the light of a personal compliment merely, but rather as an expression of their approval of services rendered under trying circumstances, in which he had devoted himself to the interests of the white people of North Carolina. He had really but little to say.—The business of the Convention was done. The plan of organization had been adopted. He had once heard of a good old fashioned Minister who divided his sermon into three heads, and having discussed firstly, secondly and thirdly, then observed that he would next proceed "to rowsicate a little." (Laughter.)

The work of the Convention being accomplished, nothing was needed now but to cheer and encourage each other.

The argument, he said, had been exhausted. There was no further need of it. All were agreed that the intelligent, patriotic white people of the State should have charge of the government. If any one outside of the establishment over which Dr. Fisher presided required further argument, life was too short and precious to be wasted in the vain endeavor to convince him. We were living, he said, under a military despotism, and that was the least of the evils to which we were subjected, for the bayonets were in the hands of white men—men of our own color. There was a greater danger ahead—the danger of being turned over to a more despicable despotism—a tyranny of mean whites and manumitted slaves. He felt, at times, an utter contempt for the English language, because of its poverty in terms of opprobrium with which to characterize this impending infamy. Seventy-five thousand nigger voters—and controlled by whom? Really, he could not do the subject justice. He felt in its contemplation pretty much as a two year old boy would feel when essaying to make fence rails with a dog-knife out of post oaks four feet through. (Laughter.)—These scallawags who sought to control through the votes of manumitted slaves, the destinies of North Carolina, were remarkable chiefly for their antipathy to glass-windows, fine houses and clean shirts. He repeated that argument was no longer needed, but merely the courage to maintain our rights.

Alluding to the apathy of the Conservatives—resulting in inglorious defeat at the recent election, he asked if it were true that the Conservative white majority of thirty thousand registered voters were totally demoralized? How dare we claim to be freemen if we suffer ourselves to be intimidated by a horde of ignorant negroes marshalled by the meanest white men that God, for inscrutable purposes, had ever made.

Governor Vance here paid an eloquent tribute to the heroism of Southern youth in the late war, and contrasted their dauntless courage with the weakness and apathy that had heretefore pervaded the Conservative ranks.

If the ignorant negroes and mean white men were allowed to rule, it would be our own fault. If we submit to such degradation, our friends at the North, and even the Radicals themselves, would point to the registered white majority, and allege with justice that we consent to be thus degraded. Duty to our sister States of the South, less favorably circumstanced, being prostrated and paralyzed by dominant negro majorities, demanded that we should act courageously and promptly. What would be their feelings? What hope could they have if we suffer North Carolina to pass under the yoke of the Holdens and Harrises?

Courage was all that we needed,—and what, he asked, were we afraid of? Of confiscation? Not one in an hundred would have anything to confiscate, after debts were paid. Of bayonets and blue-coats? We have lived among them for seven years past. Of military arrest and imprisonment in bastiles? Why the habeas corpus is a thing that was, and the Judges of the Supreme Court had grown so rusty they would have to read up were a case of the kind brought before them.

Better be afraid of leaving to our children the bitter legacy of servitude to negroes.

He urged thorough organization, for our enemies were organized. There were seventy thousand negroes—sworn members of secret leagues, who were as so many blocks of wood in the hands of the builder. As a flock of sheep they would follow their shepherd, and their vote would be cast as a unit. Their white leaders and associates were men discarded by, and who would fain discard their own color,—timid men, afraid of confiscation, and ambitious, intriguing men, who failing to achieve political eminence or emolument among respectable people—aspire downwards to meet ultimately the reward of infamy.

The Convention now sitting at the capitol had prepared enough offices to give one to every man of their party who can read and write. They had also raised the price of wages, and were actually paying eight dollars a day for field hands! If they pay common field hands eight dollars per day, what, he asked, would they not give for an overseer like himself? (Laughter.) Their policy, he said, would be to fix the earliest possible time for holding the elections, that the time for Conservative organization might be shortened, and they would doubtless submit their new Constitution to the people as soon as the more politic among them could succeed in forcing their compatriots away from the eight dollars a day.—Their policy was thus marked by all the elements of larceny, viz: fraud, force and surprise.—Four weeks, probably, from the date of their adjournment, would bring the day of election.

The prayer of the poor fellow who fell from the Long Bridge was, "Lord have mercy on me, and that quick!" He would urge his Conservative friends to organize, organize, "and that quick."

There was but one issue, and that was a plain one. Shall negroes or white men rule the State? All other issues were merely of local interest.—Repudiation was a false issue. We cannot repudiate private debts. The State is in the Union as a State for the purpose of taxation, and there is not a provision of the Constitution that is oppressive and grievous that has not been enforced. We are only excluded from representation and all other participation in its benefits. Radical policy as to the status of the Southern States was of the supple-jack or limber-jimmy order—a State and not a State. Now you see it—now you don't! (Laughter.)

[The lateness of the hour and the length of this report precludes the Reporter's giving a more extended notice of Gov. Vance's address. It was emphatically the speech of the Convention, and enchanted alike by its eloquence and humor, the Convention and its visitors.]

Col. W. J. Green then addressed the Convention, paying a high compliment to his predecessor, and excoriated the mean whites in the most trenchant style.

On motion of Mr. J. F. Hoke, a committee of one from each Judicial District was appointed to nominate delegates and alternates to the National Convention.

The President appointed as follows:

1st District—J. B. Hare.
2d District—H. R. Bryan.
3d District—Wm. E. Pell.
4th District—Lewis Hanes.
5th District—D. S. Cowan.
6th District—A. C. Cowles.
7th District—J. F. Hoke.
8th District—Marcus Erwin.

During the absence of the Committee, Messrs. Durham, Manly, Strong, Graham, McLean, Steele, Fowle, Russ and others, were successively called on for speeches, and in turn acknowledged the compliment and tendered excuses.

The Committee, on their return to the Hall, reported the following nominations:

DELEGATES TO THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

W. N. H. Smith, Wm. R. Cox, Wm. A. Wright, John F. Hoke.

ALTERNATES.

John A. Gilmer, Jr., A. C. Cowles, A. T. Davidson, John Hughes.

The report of the Committee was adopted.

W. L. Steele, Esq., offered a resolution of thanks to the President, Vice Presidents and Secretaries of the Convention for the faithful and impartial manner in which they had discharged their duties.

R. H. Smith, Esq., taking the Chair, the resolution was put, and adopted unanimously.

The President returned his acknowledgments, and expressed his gratification at the character of the Convention and the harmony that had marked its deliberations, and again urged thorough organization and unremitting effort to essential success. On motion of R. C. Badger, Esq., the Convention then adjourned sine die.

LOYAL BIOGRAPHIES.

The following has been furnished as a brief sketch of the "personal history" of one of the very loyal delegates to the "Constitutional" Convention of North Carolina:

My place of birth, if known, is so obscure, and the circumstances attending that occasion were so uninteresting, that the less said under this head the better.

Of a nat'ral "sly turn of mind," as the neighbors used to remark of me, in connection with their hens' nests and chicken coops, I very soon mastered "prent," and following the bent of an intense inclination, took to the study of theology.

It may be said of me, that I fairly began life some years since in Carteret county, as a Baptist preacher of the strictest sort. I cannot say that I made much headway in the ministry, for my flock, unable to appreciate my great worth, manifested an ungrateful disposition towards me; denied me their confidence, withdrew from me their support, and ungenerously charged me with hypocrisy, and proved upon me rascality.

Thus outraged, I laid aside my priestly robes, to drown my sorrows, too deep for utterance, in the flowing bowl. I succeeded. The snake exhibition in my boots was a success, and in the hour of triumph I entered the charmed circle of the sporting fraternity. My career as a "black leg" was both brilliant and useful.

Desiring to extend my field of operations, and increase my usefulness in the cause of human philanthropy, I entered the healing profession as a "quack," or "root" and yarbe doctor, where I was, at the breaking out of the war, fairly on the road to fame. But Mars had too many attractions for Esculapius, and the latter was roped into the ranks of treason—to make it odious, of course. During the war I became exceedingly obnoxious to my people from the disposition I possessed to pry into the business of others which did not concern me, and I was therefore called a spy and informer on my neighbors during the occupation of that country by United States troops.

Since the war I have been everything by turns and nothing long, having always an eye to the main chance.

Here, I am a delegate to the Constitutional Convention of North Carolina; at home, I am not much to speak of, my enthusiasm in agrarian principles having become so generally known to every body, that many are constantly on the alert, expecting me to put them into operation at every opportunity. And I do.

Agrarianism is my republican political faith, and a practical faith it is too, as I, who have so often tested it, may well assert.

AN OVERTURE.

Certain of the kangaroos now on exhibition at the Capitol, have intimated to us that if we will drop the word nigger and substitute therefor negro in our reports of their performances, that this journal shall no longer be denied the privilege of a reporter among "ye animiles" of the ring.

It will be remembered that the question of expelling reporters came up on a report of the Sentinel, in which black—very black men were called negroes.

Why the kangaroos should recede from their original position, this deponent saith not. We only know that this paper has given them no reason to suppose for a single moment, that we are at all disposed to back down from any stand we may have seen proper to take.

It is a source of no inconsiderable inconvenience and trouble to us, that we are not allowed a reporter at the Capitol, nevertheless, we shall certainly never deliberately place one there at a sacrifice of anything we have said in regard to the motley assemblage, or any of its members.

The attempts of the "trooly loil" to brow-beat or bully the press of North Carolina, induce us to designate the ebo shins of the collection as "niggers," a term not inappropriate to many of the pale-faces therein, if, as has been alleged, the word nigger means "a low, dirty fellow."

We shall continue our reports as heretofore, and we particularly request certain delegates, with white skins, to regard the term nigger as applicable to themselves, for we are very sure that many of them now at the Capitol owe their complexions either to accident or to some strange—passing strange freak of nature.

There was a shooting affair between a citizen of Goldsboro' and a member of Dan Castello's troupe, after the performance in that town on Saturday night. Pistols were used by both parties. The circus man was struck but not hurt.

CITY AND STATE.

Bureau Incidents and Accidents.

The Goldsboro News of Wednesday chronicles the following incidents, in which the "wards of the nation" bore conspicuous parts: On Friday night a nigger entered the store of the Messrs. Weil and attempted to abstract money from the drawer. The tinkling of a bell attached to the drawer warned the proprietors of the presence of the thief, and they immediately entered the front door to secure him, but the rogue scenting danger, ran off, leaving his shoes, cartridge box, belt, bayonet, scabbard and cap box. He was a soldier and, of course, was not arrested.

On Thursday night the money drawer of Mr. E. Rosenberg was abstracted, while the owner was in the rear of his store. Twenty dollars covered the loss. On the same night the warehouse of Mr. Nathan Edgerton was broken into and robbed of a lot of spun cotton.

On Saturday night a sable buck very kindly relieved the Messrs. Weil of the trouble of selling a pair of boots, by taking them off without payment.

On the same night some of the attaches of Dan Castello's circus, who had missed a piece of canvas, were passing through the market house, and discovered the stall of T. J. Johnson open and a pile of meat lying at the door. The police were called, the premises searched, and a nigger found under the counter, with a huge butcher knife in his hand to defend his booty. The thief was arrested and calaboosed.

We have a faint recollection of reading a letter written upon the solicitation of Gen. O. O. Howard by one Be-a-nigger-dear Gen. Miles, Assistant Commissioner of Freedmen for the "Territory of North Carolina," urging the continuance of the blessed Bureau in the said "Territory of the said North Carolina," and assigning as a reason for such a course, that it was necessary to the physical, mental, and spiritual welfare of the niggers in our midst—the first intimation we had ever had that the Bureau was a missionary scheme for the benefit of the heathen. We were somewhat inclined to differ with the jailor of President Davis, when we read his letter, but if evidences of the spiritual benefit conferred by the Bureau like these we have, continue to accumulate, we shall be forced to withdraw our opposition, and join in the cry which has gone out from the throats of every one of these loyal, spiritual advisers and teachers: Don't—oh, please do not remove the blessed Bureau, Gen. Howard!

A negro, who attempted to cross the Neuse at Thompson's ferry, in Wayne county, last Saturday, was thrown from his boat by the ferry rope and drowned. The Goldsboro' News, to which we are indebted for the facts, states that there were boats in the river and several negroes present but that no effort was made to save him. The spiritual part of the nigger nature has certainly been highly cultivated by the Bureau. Gen. Miles says so.

Capt. Wm. D. Elms, of Charlotte, a gallant officer of the 37th N. C. Regt., Lane's Brigade, during the late war, died at the residence of his father-in-law, John Ross, Esq., of Lancaster District, S. C., a few days since. Capt. Elms left Charlotte, on Saturday to see his family, then visiting Mr. Ross, in good health, and his sudden death was totally unexpected by his numerous friends in Charlotte and elsewhere.

The Fayetteville News records an instance of violence and robbery near that place a few days since. What is the country coming to?

The Congo Congressional, Reconstructional, Constitutional Convention of North Carolina.

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

[TWENTY-FIRST DAY.]

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 6, 1868.

Dr. Cowles, "the rootist," was in his chair a few minutes before ten, this morning, evidently desiring to open his performance a little in advance of his dangerous competitor at Tucker Hall, thinking no doubt that the "moral idea" would draw better if opened first. Here the nigger reporter for a Liberia paper, published in this city, gave us such a "dig in the ribs" with the delicate toe of his No. 16 brogan, that we came very near getting "out of order," but the Doctor about this time fired away with his little mallet at the mahogany desk in front of him, exclaiming "rats to your holes, git." And they all got.

Journal of yesterday read, corrected and approved as usual.

Mr. Tourgee, from Guilford, arose to a question of privilege, and submitted the following protest from several members:

Whereas, we consider the ordinance entitled "An ordinance for the relief of debtors," passed by vote of this Convention yesterday, as entirely inadequate to the wants of the people, insidious and unjust in its distinction between debtors, affording no relief for the unfortunate debtors, whose old debts have been removed since May, 1865, and others whose present condition is equally deplorable and equally the result of the war, and that it also opens the door to unlimited fraud, we respectfully protest against this action of the Convention, and ask that this protest be spread upon the journals.

Galloway, nigger, objected to its adoption.

After some discussion, it was laid on the table.

MEMORIALS.

Mr. Ray, of Alamance, offered a memorial from Eliza C. Wagner, asking to have an illegal marriage made null and void. Referred.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Abbott, of the Shakers, from the Committee on Finance, submitted the following reports:

A resolution instructing the Finance Committee to confer with Congress and negotiate a loan of $3,000,000 for agricultural purposes. The committee reported that they could not recommend its adoption, and asked to be discharged. Their report was adopted and request granted.

A resolution to negotiate a loan of $500 to pay the contingent expenses of the Convention was favorably considered by the committee and their report adopted. [Mr. Abbott stated that the bills for contingent expenses, if properly vouched for, would be cashed at the First National Bank.]

An ordinance levying a tax of one-twentieth of one per cent. on the land in North Carolina, at its rates of valuation in 1860, and on the personal property within said State, according to its value to be made in 1868, the proceeds to defray the expenses of the Convention. The committee reported favorably, and,

On motion of Mr. Abbott, the rules were suspended and the ordinance adopted—ayes 62; nays 13.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, submitted a report from the Committee on Corporations, which was ordered to be printed.

RESOLUTIONS, &C.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, a resolution regarding the suspension of the rules, was adopted.

Mr. Ragland, of Granville, a resolution that the Committee appointed to confer with Gen. Canby, be authorized to request him to stay the ruinous executions of new debts.

Hood, (nigger,) of Cumberland, moved an indefinite postponement.

Mr. Tourgee demanded the ayes and noes.—The ayes and noes being called, resulted—ayes 44, noes 36.

Galloway, (nigger,) of New Hanover, moved the adoption of the resolutions, and called for the previous question.

Mr. Abbott moved to refer to the Committee appointed to confer with Gen. Canby, which motion prevailed.

Mr. French, from Bladen, a resolution instructing the Committee on Governor and other Executive officers to report an additional section, fixing the salaries of the different officers. Mr. French withdrew with the understanding that he would renew at the proper time.

Mr. Heaton, from Craven, a resolution providing for the appointment of a Committee on Revision and Arrangements. The resolution passed.

Mr. Turner, of Harnett, an ordinance providing that no act of this Convention appropriating monies, shall be valid until the Constitution is ratified by the people.

Leave of absence was granted Messrs. Sanderlin, Galloway, Patrick, Williamson, Aydlott, Carter and Peterson.

Harris, of Wake, nigger, asked if the resolution offered some time ago taking away the per diem of absent members had not been passed—if so, he wanted it carried out. If they kept granting leaves of absence the Convention would soon be adjourned.

CALENDAR.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, a resolution amending rule 36 of the Convention. Adopted.

Mr. Rodman, of Beaufort, a resolution respecting the contingent expenses of the Convention. Lies over.

Mr. Mullican, of Davidson, an ordinance providing that debts and contracts be held inviolate.

Mr. Tourgee moved to postpone indefinitely. Carried.

Mr. Gunter, of Chatham, a dear lover of chickens and "sich" during the war, a resolution voiding all contracts, the consideration of which was Confederate money. Referred to committee on Relief.

Mr. Read, of Warren, a resolution providing that the Convention hold two sessions daily on and after to-morrow. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Parker, of Northampton, a resolution to the same effect. Laid on the table.

Mr. Ellis, of Catawba, a resolution providing that the Convention petition Congress to aid the President of the United States in testing before the Supreme Court the constitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts. Laid on the table.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The hour of 12 having arrived, the Report of the Committee of the Whole upon the report of the Committee on Governor and other Executive officers was called up, and read by section.

The question was upon Mr. Heaton's motion to strike out in 1st section in the word "two," and insert "three" in the term of officers.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, thought the term of four years sufficiently short, and made a motion to that effect.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, hoped the motion would be voted down, as he considered the term of two years long enough, and called for the ayes and noes on Mr. Jones' motion—ayes 62; noes 36.

The section was then adopted as amended.

In section 2 Mr. Tourgee moved to amend by striking out "6 years" and inserting 8 years," which motion prevailed, and the section was adopted as amended.

The 3d section was adopted as reported.

The 4th section was amended by Mr. Tourgee, by striking out "executive" and inserting "perform," after which the section was adopted.

Mr. Forkner moved to amend the same section by adding in the 10th line after the words "Constitution and laws of the State and," the words, "Constitution and laws of the United States," which was adopted.

Mr. Tourgee then moved to strike out all after the word "elected," which was passed, and the 4th section adopted with the three amendments.

The remaining sections were adopted as reported.

Mr. Watts, of Martin, moved its final reading be made the special order for 12 o'clock to-morrow, and that it also be printed. Motion prevailed.

The report of the Committee of the Whole upon the report of the Committee on Militia, was then taken up, read by section and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Watts, it was ordered to be printed, and its final reading made the special order for 12 o'clock to-morrow.

Harris, of Wake, nigger, moved to refer the memorial presented by him some days ago from Ann Underdue, petitioning for divorce from Gilliam Underdue, to a select committee of three.

After some debate, the motion prevailed.

CALENDAR RESUMED.

Harris, of Wake, nigger, a resolution of relief for his people.

On motion of Mr. Forkner, it was indefinitely postponed.

On motion of Mr. Heaton, the report of the Committee on Bill of Rights was made the special order for 12 o'clock on Saturday.

Harris, of Wake, nigger, a resolution providing that no final action be taken on any subject until the Constitution was framed by the Convention. Laid over.

Mr. Congleton, a resolution in relation to relief, &c. Laid on the table.

Mr. Tourgee, a resolution instructing the committee of three to enquire of Gen. Canby how far he will recognize legislation by this Convention. Laid on the table.

Mr. Rich, a resolution in favor of giving the Governor the veto power. Laid on the table.

Mr. Duckworth, an ordinance in favor of the Sheriff of Henderson. Passed.

On motion, the Convention then adjourned.

Having taken his seat in that body, in 1851, Hon. Ben. Wade will have served continuously eighteen years in the United States Senate when his term expires in 1869.

Song of the Wind.

I sport at morn amid flowery beds,
Tossing the leaves that the ripe rose sheds;
Drying the tear from the aster's eye;
Seeking the shade where the violet's lie;
Ringing glad peels on the heather-bell;
Summoning the bee from his honey-cell;
Kissing to ripeness the peach's cheek;
Painting the apple with scarlet streak;
Gathering the pearly drops of dew
Where the timorous field mouse hides from view;
Nor caring to think, in my merry play,
That flowers must wither and fruits decay.
I wander afar on the lone hillsides,
'Mid the heather tufts, where the moor-fowl hides;
Where the bracken waves o'er its native rock,
And the shepherd follows his meek-eyed flock;
Where the hunted stag to his covert hies,
And the crags resound to the deerhound's cries;
Through the faint spray of the rushing linn,
And hold my breath at the wild water's din.
I roam afar at my own wild will,
And wake up the slumbering mists on the hill;
And hither and thither in conscious glee,
Like a monarch at large so joyous and free.
I enter unbidden the ruined hall,
Where the ivy clings to the mouldering wall;
Where the warder's horn hath ceased to wind,
And the dial hath the lustreless glare of the blind;
Where the rank nettle chokes the fortalice wide,
And the bramble trails up the buttress-side;
Through the drear court yard, where the fox-glove blooms,
And the thistles tosses its downy plumes;
Where the young fox cowers on the fireless hearth,
That erewhile resounded with gleeful mirth,
Wondering whither had passed the pride
Of lordly baron and noble bride!
I wander at eve through the lone church yard—
No footfall, save mine, on the silent sward;
I sigh as I pass through the field of graves,
Where the willow bends and the cypress waves;
Where the brown leaves quiver as they fall,
Telling that death is the lot of all!
Where the light of the desolate home lies deep,
And hearts big with fame in oblivion sleep;
Where quenched are the fair, bright visions of joy
The mother twined round her dark-eyed boy;
And life's fleeting pageant is over and past,
Like the weary sigh of the autumn blast.
I have shaken old Ocean's heaving side,
And spurned the Armada's vaunted pride;
I shatter the straining mask to the deck,
And toss the fair ship to a shapeless wreck.
When the angry surge has been lulled to rest,
And the foam-bells whiten the wavelet's crest,
I softly float round the shipwrecked band,
And waft the life-freighted raft to land.
I carry the boat from its destined way,
To succor the hopeless cast away;
Then chant a requiem o'er the brave,
Unshrouded who lie in their ocean-grave.
I bear the thunder-clouds on high,
Nor quake at their dreadful artillery;
I dance in glee, nor bow my head,
When the lambent lightning bolt is sped.
I rush abroad in the pride of my might,
And smite the world with dark affright;
The deep-rooted oak from its bed have rent,
And laughed at man's proudest monument.
Yet, waving the harebell, or tossing the sea,
I utter his voice who first let me free;
And stay my flight at His sovereign will,
Whose voice of power says, "Peace, be still!"

Alleged Insanity of Mrs. Lincoln.

Private letters received from Chicago state that Mrs. Lincoln is insane beyond all doubt.—She recently sold all the furniture in her house, and has two old men as body-guard, believing she will be robbed and murdered. Her mania is for selling, and a dread lest she come to want.—All her friends are said to be conscious of her mental condition, but think, so long as she is harmless, her removal to a lunatic asylum would increase her derangement.

An old officer of the army used to say that the three duties of a quartermaster, as understood by the quartermaster himself, were: First, to make himself comfortable; second, to make himself more comfortable; third, to make himself most comfortable. If any time remained, he was to employ it in making everybody else uncomfortable.

A court in England has given a decision against the legality of locking railway passengers into the cars, a custom which universally prevails in that country, although it has been the occasion of many accidents.

In the recent Democratic Convention in Connecticut there were seventeen delegates who voted for Hawley, the Republican candidate for Governor last year.

The Deseret News thinks that Congress is guilty of a gross violation of the Constitution in not at once admitting Utah as a State with its peculiar institution.

Ohio is going thoroughly through all the laws of the State, inserting the word "white" in its statutes.

The United States Postoffice Department prosecuted an ex-Postmaster in Kendall county, Ill., for a balance of eight cents.

Mr. Geo. W. Coale, of Baltimore, has offered to the United States an original portrait by Sully, of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.
Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.
Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.
I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.
If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.
WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.
DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:
Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.
I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.
WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.
DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.
Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

CHRONIC LIVER COMPLAINT CURED.
This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.
I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.
THOMAS THORN.
